

Project Profile

Broadmeadow Central Train Control | Newcastle, NSW

Client	Rail Infrastructure Corporation
Client Sector	Office
Project Cost	$3,000,000
Services Provided	Full cost planning from feasibility through to pretender estimating and post contract services
Architect	Duc Associates
Head Contractors	Haslin Constructions

Overview

Central Control Centre for the Rail Infrastructure Corporation, for monitoring of the NSW network. Comprising a two storey steel framed structure on piled foundations, including the installation of ESD designed services. Notable features include the ability to amalgamate several Rail service features within the one building